

A Mackereth Family History

This family history research was offered to the Society by Tony Harrison in May 2018. We have included all of it as there are so many family members connected to the Cartmel Peninsula.

The origins of the family are in Grasmere but they then migrate south to Ambleside, Flookburgh, Cartmel and Grange and further afield.

The family of George and Elizabeth Mackereth (pages 13 - 21) were brought up in Flookburgh. George was a blacksmith.

George and Margaret Mackereth (pages 22 - 34) were connected to Flookburgh, Grange and Meathop.

James and Sarah Mackereth (pages 35 - 42) were connected to Flookburgh and ran the Railway Inn at Cark, Crown Inn at Flookburgh and the Engine Inn at Cark.

Thomas Rose and (Mary) Elizabeth Mackereth (pages 43 - 69) were connected to Grange and there are memories of Rockery House in Grange and lots of information about Meathop Gas Works.

If you have anything to add please contact us and we will pass it onto Tony.
